Miniature Fine Art Division

Definition: Miniature Fine Art is fine art on a small scale with minute attention to detail which can sustain close inspection or magnification.

Miniature Fine Art is juried and judged in its totality. Jurors score the artwork on Framing/Presentation, Miniature Standards & Technique.

Miniature Standards

Media: Acrylic, Colored Pencil, Drawing, Egg Tempera, Encaustic, Gouache, Graphite, Inks, Mixed Media, Oil, Painted Porcelain, Pastel, Prints (hand-pulled), Sculpture, Silverpoint, and Watercolor.

Scale: Representational artwork is to be 1/6th or less of subject's actual size. Non-Representational artwork or a subject too small to portray at 1/6th scale must display a sense of miniature.

Sculpture – 3D: Entries must fit into a 3" x 3" footprint and be no taller than 6". All parts must be securely attached as a single unit.

2-D Image Size: Image area (height x width) is to be 25 sq inches or less which includes art that extends onto a mat or frame.

Mats: Mats are optional for all media and there is no restriction on mat size or color. Mats must be of acid-free matboard, clean and neatly cut.

Frames

- All 2-D artwork must be framed.
- Frames must be of gallery quality.
- Overall frame dimension must not exceed 56 sq inches (h x w).
- Framing material is to be no greater than 1 1/8 inches in width and 1 inch in depth. Frames need to reflect the essence of miniature.
- Liners will be considered mats.
- Glazing: artwork matted or on unsealed papers or Yupo must have glass or Plexiglass. Media that are stabilized with a sealant such as varnish do not need glazing.
- Backs of frames must have a dust cover except for metal frames.
- 2 D-rings or 2 small eye screws must be attached for hanging. NO SAWTOOTH HANGERS are allowed.
- Wire attached to the D-rings or eye-screws is preferred.
- Bumpers or Bumpons should be placed at the lower back corners.
- NO easel back frames are allowed.

He represented NM at the Whitney Museum Biennial of Contemporary Art in NYC; received the Mayor's Award for Excellence in Visual Arts in Santa Fe ('94); given a 30 year retrospective at the NM Fine Arts Museum ('97); represented the USA at its first cultural exchange with the Republic of Viet Nam; elected Artist of the Year twice; Represented the Capital Art Collection, SF Capital Building. Scott wrote "Encounters with Beauty: Excerpts from an Artist's Journal 1963-2006", one of 3 finalists for the NM Book Award.

Marilyn Yates
Juror

Marilyn Yates maintains a home and studio in Santa Fe. Marilyn received a BFA degree from California State University at Los Angeles in 1960. Marilyn has been a professional artist for nearly 40 years. Her work has been exhibited in galleries and museums throughout the United States, and it is included in private collections world-wide. The recipient of numerous awards for her work in watercolor and acrylics, Marilyn has been honored for her work in watercolor by the Southwest Watercolor Society and her acrylic paintings have been given recognition by International Artist Magazine and American Women Artists. She is a signature member of The National Acrylic Painters' Association. Her work as been described as poetic and lyrical with a careful eye for color harmony and design.

Miniature Fine Art Division Judge and Jurors

David Drummond
Judge

David Drummond, a career physicist with the U.S. Air Force is widely recognized for his realistic watercolors of Lake Powell and western landscapes. Drummond concentrates on attention to detail and mood. His expressive realist figurative work and still life paintings give testimony to talent, as do dozens of honors and critical acclaim in the national fine arts media. Over the years he has accumulated numerous honors and awards, and was commissioned to paint the 2007 White House Christmas card and in 2013 his "Escalante Noon" was selected to hang in the George W. Bush Library. He won "Best of Show" in 2014 at the Miniature Painters, Sculptors and Gravers Society Annual Exhibition in Washington DC. With "The Rose" His miniatures were exhibited in Russia in 2012 as part of the World Miniature Exhibition.

Joanne Kennedy
Juror

JoAnne Kennedy has studied with numerous recognized artists from all over the USA and is a Signature Member of the NM Watercolor Society & Pastel Society of NM. She received first place in pastels at the 2007 Expo NM Fine Arts Show; Best of Show for miniatures in 2000; First place for pastels in 2003 & 2014 MasterWorks of NM; First place in the Small Works Exhibit at the PSNM NATIONAL show 2014; along with numerous other rewards. She has exhibited at the Watermelon Fine Art Gallery in Cedar Crest. Artist Collaborative is showing her art at different Albuquerque locations. She has shown in galleries in Madrid, NM, Santa Fe, Taos, Texas and Puerta Villarta, Mexico.

Rich Troyanowski
Juror

Rich Troyanowski studied sculpture at Rutgers, received a BA in Art Education at the College of New Jersey, and studied archeology and anthropology at the University of New Mexico. He has been an art history newsletter writer and instructor, and served as Vice President of the New Mexico Art League. He taught with APS and with the City on a grant for the Albuquerque Senior Arts. He continues to occasionally conduct workshops and lectures. Rich has appeared in most of the local area exhibitions, appearing in one and two-man shows and a half dozen galleries. His miniature paintings have won awards at MasterWorks. Rich as been in the Anne Frank Show and represented the VA at its national outpatient shows and is a current member of the New Mexico Veterans Art, RGAA, and the NM Art League.
